WELCOME VISITORS! CHRIST IS IN OUR MIDST!

We are honored you are visiting today. * Liturgy Books may be found next to the Candle Table at the back of the church. * We invite you to fill out a Visitor's Card on the Candle Table & place it in one of the Collection Baskets there. * We do not take up a Collection during our services but rather ask you to place donations in one of the baskets on the Candle Table or next to the Book Store Table. * While only Orthodox Christians who have prepared themselves may receive Holy Communion, everyone is welcome to come forward at the end of Liturgy to receive a blessing from our priest and to take the blessed bread. * It is the Orthodox practice to stand during services as a sign of reverence for the Lord but if you need to sit, please do so. Use of chairs is shared. If you are able, we particularly try to stand during the processions with the Gospel and the Gifts, during the Readings, the Creed, during the preparation of the Holy Eucharist, the Lord's Prayer and reception of Communion. * We invite you to stay after the Thanksgiving Prayers for fellowship and the meal so that we may greet you personally, and to answer any questions you may have about our faith, our parish or today's service. * Please help yourself to the brochures and information on the east side counter. * All children ages three through twelve are encouraged to attend our Sunday School after Holy Communion.

Venerable Silouan of Mt. Athos

ALSO COMMEMORATED THIS THURSDAY

Troparion — Tone 4

On the path of humility, by your prayers you received Christ as your Master. In your heart the Holy Spirit witnessed to your salvation. Therefore all people called to live in hope rejoice and celebrate your memory! Holy Father Silouan, pray to Christ God to save our souls.

Troparion — Tone 2

O all-blessed Father Silouan, Flaming zealot of the seraphim's love for the Lord And fervent imitator of Jeremiah who wept for the people, Hearing the call of the Mother of the Lord of Hosts, With wise courage you spewed out the sinful serpent And withdrew from the snares of the world to the mountain of Athos, Where in labors and prayer, joined with tears, In abundance you acquired the grace of the holy Spirit with which our hearts are enflamed. Being strengthened by you, we cry out with compunction: My Lord, my Life and the Joy of your saint, Save the world and us from all cruel things!
