WELCOME VISITORS! CHRIST IS IN OUR MIDST!

We are honored you are visiting today. * Liturgy Books may be found next to the Candle Table at the back of the church. * We invite you to fill out a Visitor's Card on the Candle Table & place it in one of the Collection Baskets there. * We do not take up a Collection during our services but rather ask you to place donations in one of the baskets on the Candle Table or next to the Book Store Table. * While only Orthodox Christians who have prepared themselves may receive Holy Communion, everyone is welcome to come forward at the end of Liturgy to receive a blessing from our priest and to take the blessed bread. * It is the Orthodox practice to stand during services as a sign of reverence for the Lord but if you need to sit, please do so. Use of chairs is shared. If you are able, we particularly try to stand during the processions with the Gospel and the Gifts, during the Readings, the Creed, during the preparation of the Holy Eucharist, the Lord's Prayer and reception of Communion. * We invite you to stay after the Thanksgiving Prayers for fellowship and the meal so that we may greet you personally, and to answer any questions you may have about our faith, our parish or today's service. * Please help yourself to the brochures and information on the east side counter. * All children ages three through twelve are encouraged to attend our Sunday School after Holy Communion.

* We hope you will visit us again very soon. *

Repose of the Venerable Sergius, Abbot and Wonderworker of Radonezh

COMMEMORATED THIS DAY

Troparion — Tone 4

A zealot of good deeds and a true warrior of Christ our God, you struggled greatly against the passions in this passing life; in songs and vigils and fasting you were an image and example to your disciples, thus the most Holy Spirit lived within you, and you were made beautiful by His working. Since you have great boldness before the Holy Trinity, remember the flock which you have wisely gathered, and do not forget to visit your children as you promised, venerable Sergius our father!

WE'LL HAVE OUR FIRST STAR PARTY at All Saints on Friday, October 7th at 6:00pm. The event is organized by our own Steve Snider who is the president of The Albuquerque Astronomical Society. On that day the moon will be in waxing crescent phase and we'll have Mars & Saturn to view as well. Steve will bring two telescopes but if any of you have your own scopes or binoculars, please bring them as well.

SIGN UP TO HELP FOR OUR BIGGEST YEARLY FUNDRAISER: The Sisterhood's Holiday Bake Sale is the parish's biggest yearly fundraiser. We need people to sign up on the sheet on the Literature table, indicating which daytime or evening hours you would be available to help make spanikopita and baklava. We will use the sign up sheet to determine whether we have enough help to go ahead with the bake sale this year. On the second Friday of December we will box orders. No experience necessary. All you need is willingness to serve and the ability to follow some simple directions. We are grateful for your generosity of your time and talent.

IF YOU WISH TO CONTRIBUTE to a charitable fund for Matushka Ingrid all you need do is write a check to ASONA and write "Matushka Ingrid" on the "for" line and it will be passed through to her. Thank you.

REFLECTION

A saint does not shine outwardly. All of his riches are within, in his soul. A peasant came from afar to the monastery to see St Sergius. When he asked the monks for the abbot, they told him he was working in the garden. The peasant went to the garden, and there saw a man in poor, ragged clothes, digging like any other peasant on a farm. The peasant returned to the monastery dissatisfied, thinking that the monks had made fun of him. So, to make things clear, he asked again for the glorious Holy Father, Sergius. Just then, Sergius returned to the monastery, and welcomed the peasant, serving him at the table. The saint saw into the heart of his guest, and knew the low opinion he had of his appearance. He consoled him by promising that he would see Sergius in a little while. A prince and his boyars then arrived at the monastery, and they all bowed low to St Sergius, and asked his blessing. The monks then removed the peasant from the room in order to make room for the new guests. In amazement the peasant looked on from a distance, to see that the one he had sought had been nearby all the time. The peasant rebuked himself for his ignorance, and was greatly ashamed. When the prince departed, the peasant quickly approached the saint, fell at his feet and began to beg his forgiveness. The great saint embraced him and said to him: "Do not grieve, my son, for you are the only one who knew the truth about me, considering me to be nothing--while others were deluded, taking me for something great."
