Prophet Samuel

COMMEMORATED THIS THURSDAY

Troparion — Tone 2

You were given as a precious gift to a barren womb, And offered as a fragrant sacrifice to your Lord. You served Him in truth and righteousness; Wherefore we honor you, O Samuel prophet of God, As an intercessor for our souls.

Troparion — Tone 2

We celebrate the memory of Your prophet Samuel, O Lord; through him we beseech You: "Save our souls."

Kontakion — Tone 8

You were a precious gift given to God before your conception. You served Him like an angel from your infancy, O blessed one. You were granted the charism to announce beforehand future things. Therefore, we cry to you: "Rejoice, Samuel, Prophet of God and great high priest."

THE ICON OF THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, "NOT MADE WITH HANDS"

ALSO COMMEMORATED THIS DAY

At the time when our Lord preached the Good News and healed every illness and infirmity of men, there lived in the city of Edessa on the shore of the Euphrates Prince Abgar who was completely infected with leprosy. He heard of Christ, the Healer of every pain and disease and sent an artist, Ananias, to Palestine with a letter to Christ in which he begged the Lord to come to Edessa and to cure him of leprosy. In the event that the Lord was unable to come, the prince ordered Ananias to portray His likeness and to bring it to him, believing that this likeness would be able to restore his health. The Lord answered that He was unable to come, for the time of His passion was approaching. Instead, He wiped His face with a towel--and the image of His face remained on the towel. The Lord gave this towel to Ananias with the admonition that the prince will be healed by it, but not entirely--He would send the prince a messenger who would complete the healing of his disease later on. Receiving the towel, Prince Abgar kissed it and the leprosy completely fell from his body, but a little of it remained on his face. Later, the Apostle Thaddaeus came to Abgar, preached the Gospel, and secretly healed and baptized him. The prince then destroyed the idols which stood at the gates of the city, and above the gates he placed the towel with the likeness of Christ attached to wood, framed in a gold frame and adorned with pearls.
