Sunday of the Last Judgment

WELCOME VISITORS! CHRIST IS IN OUR MIDST!

We are honored you are visiting today. * Liturgy Books may be found next to the Candle Table at the back of the church. * We invite you to fill out a Visitor's Card on the Candle Table & place it in one of the Collection Baskets there. * We do not take up a Collection during our services but rather ask you to place donations in one of the baskets on the Candle Table or next to the Book Store Table. * While only Orthodox Christians who have prepared themselves may receive Holy Communion, everyone is welcome to come forward at the end of Liturgy to receive a blessing from our priest and to take the blessed bread. * It is the Orthodox practice to stand during services as a sign of reverence for the Lord but if you need to sit, please do so. Use of chairs is shared. If you are able, we particularly try to stand during the processions with the Gospel and the Gifts, during the Readings, the Creed, during the preparation of the Holy Eucharist, the Lord's Prayer and reception of Communion. * We invite you to stay after the Thanksgiving Prayers for fellowship and the meal so that we may greet you personally, and to answer any questions you may have about our faith, our parish or today's service. * Please help yourself to the brochures and information on the east side counter. * All children ages three through twelve are encouraged to attend our Sunday School after Holy Communion.

* We hope you will visit us again very soon. *

Most Holy Theotokos, save us!

Ω ANNOUNCEMENTS Ω

BECAUSE GENESIS is read on the weekdays of Great Lent, a study of some of its important stories will be led by Rick Staats. We will look at the Creation, the "fall" and "foreshadowing of redemption" (chs. 1-4), the Flood (chs. 6-8), and Abraham and Isaac (ch. 22). Bring your Orthodox Study Bible, if you have it, and come join us from 7:00 to 8:30pm running thru March 29. Also, please note that there will be no class on February 22nd and March 22nd.

March Youth Even

In the spirit of Great Lent, All Saints will be having its first charity-focused youth event at the Roadrunner Food Bank (5840 Office Blvd NE) on Saturday 3/3 from 8:00am to 11:00am. Participants will be sorting food, packing food boxes, performing custodial duties, and helping with other tasks in their warehouse. Children as young as 6 can participate and parents are encouraged to attend. Participants should wear closed-toed shoes and long-sleeve shirts. Please call or email Chris Parchert if you're interested in attending: 440-1604 or chris.parchert@gmail.com.

THE EPISTLES OF ST IGNATIUS OF ANTIOCH is the title of our new book study which will begin on Tuesday, Feb 20th at 10:30am.

“Not much is known about St. Ignatius’ life until he began his famous last journey—on foot—to Rome, where he was thrown to the lions as portrayed in his icons. On his way to his death, many churches sent representatives to him, and fortunately for future Christians, he sent letters back to the churches. Thanks to St. Polycarp, seven of these letters survived; in them, we find some of the earliest teachings about the organization, practices, and beliefs of the Church. He emphasized the importance of loyalty and obedience to the bishop, as well as the salvific power of the Eucharist, “the flesh of Christ,” “the gift of God,” “the medicine of immortality.” On December 20, 107, during the reign of Emperor Trajan, St. Ignatius ended his life in a Roman arena, torn to bits by beasts. Rather than discouraging the fledgling faith of Christianity as the Romans had hoped, his noble death ignited and strengthened the faith of many.” Virginia Nieuwsma
